

ANDREW MacNAUGHTAN

Photographer /Music Video Director

Photographer and music video director Andrew MacNaughtan is known for his keen eye and creative art direction. MacNaughtan brings a unique vision to each project, seen in the direction of over 50 music videos, the album art photography of over 150 releases and the press & publicity material for several recording artists and celebrities.

MacNaughtan has photographed such premier artists as Avril Lavigne, Celine Dion, the Barenaked Ladies, Alanis Morissette, 3 Doors Down, Moby and Nickelback. His eclectic style adapts to a wide range of subjects, from the progressive – cutting-edge rock band Simple Plan – to the sophisticated – the official portrait of Her Excellency, Madam Clarkson, the Governor-General of Canada. MacNaughtan has been the principal photographer for rock icons Rush since 1989, photographing all their tours, promotional materials and album art.

In March of 2006 MacNaughtan raised $55,000 for families in Africa living with HIV/AIDS with his Art Gives Hope art exhibit fundraiser, featuring over 60 images of his most striking work. MacNaughtan has won numerous awards over his 15 year career, including four Juno Awards, for Our Lady Peace, Tom Cochrane, Rush and Jann Arden, two East Coast Music Awards and a MMVA for his work with Great Big Sea. . He recently appeared on Canada's Next Top Model as one of their guest photographers.
